- 6. All exhibitors should check in at the NPA desk to get their banquet tickets and show pin.

Substitutions shown with specialty clubs will be allowed as the individual club allows.
- 9. Please specify Homer breeds on the entry form. (Show Type, Racing, American Show Racer, Giant, German Beauty, Exhibition, Genuine, etc.)

- 13. The NPA will not be responsible for the loss of birds at the show or in transit, however, the NPA will have security in place during the show to greatly minimize the risk of this occurring. Clean food and water for the birds will be provided.

  14. All birds will be individually cooped. There will be NO Sale Section at the show, however, any bird properly entered in the show, with entry fee paid, may be sold from its coop in the show.
- 15. No birds will be allowed in the show hall for which the entry fee has not been paid. All birds sold in the show hall must remain in the hall until all birds are released on Sunday afternoon. No bird sales will be allowed in the parking lot.

Show Photographer of Champions: This year's show photographer will be Layne Gardner with the help of Jay Beals as his runner. Layne and Jay will attempt to photograph all breed champions, and the pictures will be included in the 2nd NPA Quarterly. The show management makes every effort to see that all breed champions are brought to the photo booth and photographed. However, it is in the owners of the champions and each breeds specialty clubs' best interest to double check with the show photographer to ensure your breed's champion was taken to the photo booth after completion of judging. Other than each breed champion's photo being taken by the show photographer taking a picture of any other placing birds (i.e., Res.
